

STEEL INDUSTRY IS BADLY CRIPPLED

Full Extent of Big Strike Not Certain Yet But Workers Are Making Big Claims

(By Associated Press)

The second day of the great struggle between labor unions and the United States Steel Corporation opened with the question as to the extent to which the industry is affected by the strike still uncertain. Confused as it is, by the conflicting claims of both sides, that the steel industry is gravely crippled in local centers of Pittsburgh, Chicago and Youngstown is certain and early reports today recorded several gains for the strikers.

In the Pittsburgh district, several plants which attempted to continue operations yesterday, shut down today. In the Chicago district, nearly all plants, including those at Hammond and Gary, are either closed or operated at greatly reduced capacity. In the Mahoning Valley of which Youngstown is the heart, reports agreed the strikers achieved their most marked success. Many large plants are closed and the strike leaders are claiming 55,000 men quit. The possibility of the strike spreading to the Bethlehem works where 35,000 men are employed, is more threatening today.

Rioting which broke out at several points yesterday, was resumed today. In clashes at Farrell and New Castle, Pennsylvania, 13 persons were wounded, three of whom may die.

The situation is regarded as so menacing in the Pittsburgh district that reinforcements of State troops were sent there. At Buffalo rioting was resumed today but apparently it is not so serious as in Pennsylvania. Incipient rioting is also reported from Youngstown.

LABOR OPENS ITS FIGHT ON ANTI-STRIKE PROVISION

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Sept. 23—Organized labor launched its fight against anti-strike provision of the Cummins railroad reorganization bill today before the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee. Glenn E. Plumb, general counsel for the railroad brotherhoods and author of the tri-partite control of railroads, said the provisions were a guarantee of "industrial revolution." He asserted they destroy the right of collective bargaining and are directed solely at the wage earners. Answering a question of Senator Pomerene, democrat, of Ohio, Plumb conceded two weeks stoppage of transportation would mean disaster and starvation for people of all cities.

RIOT OVER PHONE STRIKE IN WEST

(By Associated Press)

It is reported the mob is shooting recklessly in the streets. It is reported that last night the mob formed after a policeman clubbed a strike picket and ordered the police to leave town and threatened the chief of police with death if he refused to resign.

DANVILLE GIRL IN A MATRIMONIAL STORM

Danville and Central Kentucky society were shocked and interested by the news that Dorothy DeLong Cook, young bride of Wm. S. Cook, prominent young Indianapolis lawyer, a member of one of the most wealthy families of the Hoosier city, is under arrest in Indianapolis. Cook met Miss DeLong while she was attending Tudor Hall, in Indianapolis, last winter and after five months' courtship they eloped and were married. Mrs. Anheir, mother of Miss DeLong, declared her daughter was only 17, instead of 18 years old, as stated in the application for a wedding certificate. The mother carried her protest to the Marion county clerk, which resulted in her husband being charged in the juvenile court, with contributing to the delinquency of Dorothy Cook by influencing her to falsify her age.

Cook caused her mother to bring his wife into court on a habeas corpus charge. Attorneys ministers and friends have attempted to settle the affair out of court, but with no avail. Mrs. Cook says, "I love my husband and I will live happily with him, although mother objects just now."

"UNCLE JOHN" WHITE ILL

Many friends here will regret to learn of the serious illness of Madison's Ex-County Clerk and former Representative John F. White. Mr. and Mrs. White moved to Nicholasville a few years ago, and it was while they were having a pleasant sojourn at Olympia Springs last week he was taken suddenly ill. His symptoms at first indicated partial paralysis, but his condition is greatly improved this week and his physicians seem confident of his complete recovery.

GREAT ADDRESS AT MEMORIAL MEETING

Sampey Gives Vivid Story of Life of Foch and McVey Urges Memorial To Heroes.

The meeting at the court house last night under the auspices of the American Legion, brought out a large and enthusiastic audience. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Thomas McCown, chairman of the Madison county Post. Supt. Howard Payne introduced the speakers in appropriate words. Dr. J. R. Sampey was the first speaker. Prof. Payne called attention to the appropriateness of the subject, "The Will to Conquer: How Foch Won the War," in its relation to the purpose of the meeting, namely, creation of interest in the erection of a memorial building on the campus at the State University, Lexington, in honor of Kentucky's men who died in the service of their country during the late war.

Dr. Sampey's lecture was a thrilling account of the life and achievements of Marshal Foch and he held his hearers in the grip of rapt attention from beginning to end. He traced the steps of development in the early life of Marshal Foch showing how he achieved greatness by slow progress. He saw 4 months service in the Franco-Prussian war but like many of our American soldiers in the recent war with Germany, he never had the opportunity to fight the Germans. He went through the various war schools of France, always ranking third or fourth in his classes. He devoted his life to the study of the art of war. He knew that some day France would have to fight Germany and whether as student or instructor in the great war college he bent every energy to his preparation for the great crisis which came in 1914 and closed November 11th, 1918, with Foch leading the forces of the Allied armies to victory.

Dr. Sampey brought out two prominent characteristics in the life of this great man, namely, his piety and his refusal to accept defeat.

Following Dr. Sampey's address, President Frank McVey, of State University, made a short talk on the appropriateness of a building built at the University to the memory of the Kentucky boys who gave their lives in the great struggle. He said that the names of each one will be placed on a tablet that the coming generations of young men, coming to the University, will see and know who it was who died that their liberties and freedom might be conserved. He said that too often great deeds and sacrifices are forgotten and that Kentucky ought not to begrudge the small sum of $300,000 asked of her for this noble purpose.

Dr. Sampey will lecture this evening at the First Baptist church on "The Political and Economic World in Which We Live." He speaks at Red House this afternoon at 3 o'clock. He speaks at Republican at 10:30 a. m. on Wednesday.

Calvary Tent Meeting Closes

The Calvary Baptist tent meeting closed Monday night. Considering the unexpected difficulties which hindered some, the meeting was a success. The membership of the little church was revived and drawn closer together and plans set on foot to solve the problem of financing the new church building. These two features of the meeting alone makes it a glorious success. There were also two additions to the church. Evangelist Tolle is a gospel preacher and has a winning personality. He conducted the revival in a tactful, masterful way which brought the victory in spite of the opposition of the carnival and the annoyance of the wind storms and rain. He won the esteem and affection of the people by his optimistic, kind, pleasing disposition. It is hoped that Rev. Tolle will come to Richmond again for a meeting. Mr. O. P. Jackson will conduct the prayer meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, and every member of the church is especially urged to be present as there is some important business to attend to.

TEACHERS TO HEAR FOSTER SATURDAY

Prof. L. E. Foster, of Hopkinsville, democratic candidate for state superintendent of public instruction, has accepted an invitation to speak to the teachers of Madison county at their regular meeting next Saturday, Sept. 27th. Prof. Foster is one of the ablest young educators in Kentucky, and strictly a live wire.

Another feature of the meeting Saturday will be an address by Miss Emma Hunt, of the state illiteracy commission. Miss Hunt will speak at 1 o'clock.

Every teacher in the county is expected to be present at the meeting Sunday, according to Supt. Edwards, and a most profitable day will be spent by all, he says.

JAILER WINS FIRST ROUND OVER TAXES

Owing to the fact that the City of Richmond was not represented, Judge W. K. Price in quarterly report Monday gave judgment against the city of Richmond in favor of Jailer W. H. Burgess, for the sum of $12.62. Jailer Burgess sued the city to collect this amount owing him for the keep of city prisoners, and to test out the question of whether he, as a resident of the county, holding office, and temporarily, he says, located in Richmond, is compelled to pay city taxes. The city, at a previous councilmanic session voted to withhold the amount of taxes it claims from him, from his prisoners' bill. The above suit resulted and Jailer Burgess thus wins the first round through failure of the city to be represented legally, or otherwise, when the case was called before Judge Price.

Judge Price had lots business before him in quarterly court Monday. The jury which heard the testimony in the case of E. L. Martin against Morris Amster failed to agree, but afterward the case was settled and dismissed. It was for the sum of $17 for tobacco alleged to have been bought by Amster.

Other cases on the docket were disposed of as follows:

Star Tailoring Co., vs. G. S. Engle, dismissed.

T. M. Crutcher, Dental Depot vs. J. C. Sandlin, judgement for plaintiff for $66.12 and interest.

Logan Griffith vs. Ed Embry, dismissed.

MEMORIAL HOSPITAL FOR HEROES OF CANTIGNY

(By Associated Press)

Paris, Sept. 23—The memory of the American soldiers who fell at Cantigny, is to be perpetuated at Montdidier by the establishment of a municipal hospital constructed from American Red Cross barracks. Over the entrance to the administration building will be an inscription reading: "Gift of the American Red Cross to the town of Montdidier. In Memory of the American soldiers Who Fell at Cantigny."

Cantigny, in the valley below Montdidier, was the first American battle field in France. In the beginning of the Allied advance last summer, the Americans captured Cantigny against tremendous odds, advancing further than any other troops in taking it.

Many Americans lie buried on the hillsides about the town. The French country people are keeping the graves green, many of the families having "adopted" American graves.

In the country surrounding Montdidier, the soldier-peasant is returning to the soil. Crops are growing where in January there were hundreds of shell holes, dugouts and trenches. Nearly half of the devastated fields in the district have been reclaimed. But while this has been going on the villages have in a large measure been neglected. Social life, however, is being rapidly restored. Churches and schools are springing up everywhere and in many cases Red Cross barracks are serving for this purpose.

Despite the fact that their homes are dark cellars and dugouts, the people are cheerful and never fail to express their gratitude and appreciation for what America has done for them.

CLEAN UP TO STOP FLU EPIDEMIC AGAIN

Mayor Receives Stringent Instructions From State Board of Health To Enforce Here

The State Board of Health is already beginning to take precautions against a recurrence of the influenza epidemic this coming winter. Mayor L. P. Evans has just received a strong letter from the board on the subject, in which particular stress is laid on the cleaning up of streets, alleys and private premises. The Mayor has therefore directed that all such be immediately cleaned up in Richmond, and other precautions taken in accordance with the instructions of the State Board of Health which are set forth to the Mayor in the letter as follows: Louisville, Kentucky Sept 18, 1919.

The Honorable Mayor and City Council, Richmond, Kentucky. Gentlemen:

This Board regrets to inform you that almost daily, official reports of cases and deaths from influenza-pneumonia, are reaching this office from widely separated sections of the State, and that similar conditions exist in other States.

In view of this disastrous experience with this disease last fall and winter in your city, with a sick and death rate, and an actual money loss from interference with business, unprecedented in the history of this State and country, and of the recognized danger of its recurrence in epidemic form in the near future, by virtue of the power vested in us by law, we hereby request you to have your streets and alleys thoroughly cleaned and oiled to prevent the evident danger in the irritation of the throats and lungs of your people by dust; and that you direct theaters, moving-picture shows and other places of public assemblage, not to permit a greater number of persons at any one time to enter such places, than can be seated comfortably, and to exclude anyone coughing or sneezing.

Given under our hands and the Seal of the Board, this eighteenth day of September, 1919.

BAY CITIES GIVE WILSON OVATION

PRESIDENT DRIVES THROUGH MILES OF CHEERING THROUGHS AT OAKLAND.

HE URGES QUICK ACTION

(By Mt. Clemens News Bureau.)

Aboard President Wilson's Special Train.—Just before departing for the extreme southwest border of the country, President Wilson in Oakland-Berkeley, across the bay from San Francisco, had the biggest day of this tour through six miles of cheering multitudes. The President made his way from the water's edge back to the hills where stand the wonderful buildings of the University of California and in the famous Greek Theater, an open air stadium, talked to 15,000 persons, many of them young men and young women students here. He was in his old familiar atmosphere, and he delivered one of his best addresses. Later in Oakland's civic auditorium he talked to another immense gathering before leaving San Francisco for the cities over the bay. He had spoken to a gathering of nearly 2,000 business men, so from the standpoint of the number of persons who heard him and from the greetings which Oakland-Berkeley extended to him his day excelled any that had gone before. San Francisco was not especially warm to him, but the other two cities made up for the enthusiasm California's metropolis lacked.

Remarkable Treaty.
Explaining the League of Nations to his audiences, Mr. Wilson said:

"I do not believe that we often enough consider how remarkable the peace conference in Paris has been. It was the first great international conference which did not meet to consider the interests and advantages of the strong nations. It was the first that did not convene to make arrangements which would establish the control of the 'strong'."

"The heart of the conference and the heart of the treaty was that it gives liberty and independence to people who never could have got it for themselves, because the men who constituted the conference realized that the basis of war was the imposition of the will of strong nations upon those who could not resist them."

Germany's Ambition.

The President explained Germany's great ambition, her "Bremen to Bagdad" trade route, leading through partitioned Poland, prostrated Roumania, subjugated Slavia, disordered Turkey and Distressed Persia. Germany was looking for the line of least resistance to establish Bagdad line; a line of absolute resistance. This war will have to be fought over again through channels in which it can run. The President pointed out the wonderful business prospects which lay in front of America if it takes its rightful place among the nations in the league, for it will be the business leader as well as the moral leader, of the world, he declared.

In an impressive conclusion, Mr. Wilson said: "I believe in Divine Providence. If I did not, I would go crazy. If I thought the direction of the disordered affairs of this world depended upon our finite intelligence, I should not know how to reason my way to sanity. But I believe this great enterprise is one of Divine mercy and peace and good will, and I do not believe there is any body of men, however the concert their power or influence, who can defeat it."

"DON'T BETRAY CAPITAL" WILSON WARNS SENATORS

Aboard President Wilson's Special Train.—Before coming into California, which marks the half-way point in the long journey, and which is important also because it is the state of Hiram Johnson, one of the chief opponents of the League of Nations Covenant, President Wilson "in the house of his friends" delivered one of the most powerful addresses of his tour. This was in Portland, Oregon, where, inspired by a tumultuous reception along the city's streets, and then over sixty miles of the famous Columbia highway, and finally in the big auditorium the President gave eloquent voice to what was not only a strong appeal for the ratification of the act, but a challenge to those who oppose it, and at the same time an intimation that he would not be adverse to certain minor reservations, though he considered them entirely superfluous.

At the beginning of his Portland address Mr. Wilson read the following quotation, which, he said, expressed his views exactly: "Nations must unite as men unite in order to preserve peace and order. The great nations must be so united as to be able to say to any single country, 'You must not go to war,' and they can say that effectively when the country declaring war knows that the force which the united nations place behind peace is irresistible." Indifferences between individuals the decision of a court is final, because in the last resort the entire force of the community is behind the court's decision. In differences between nations which go beyond the range of arbitral questions, peace can only be maintained by putting behind it the force of united nations determined to uphold and prevent war." The audience warmly applauded the sentiment, expressed in the quotation. Then it burst into cheers and laughter as the President explained that is from an address delivered at Union College in June, 1915, year that war began, by Mr. Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts. I entirely concur in Senator Lodge's conclusions, and I hope I shall have his co-operation in bringing about the desired result." Introduced by a Republican mayor, the President appealed to both his fellow-Democrats and to the Republicans to forget politics when considering the league. "If any one allows himself when thinking of this matter to think of the elections of 1920," Mr. Wilson said, "I want to declare that I separate myself from him."

The President, referring to his senatorial opponents, said the great danger from them was that they might so change the meaning of the peace treaty as to make necessary the reconsideration of it by the other powers including Germany, and it would sit very ill upon my stomach to take it back to Germany. "Let Borah take it back," some one shouted. "I have said I do not see a single phrase in the covenant which is of doubtful meaning, but if they want to say in other words what that undoubted meaning is, provided they do not change that undoubted meaning, I have no objection."

Tremendous applause was evoked by a statement of Mr. Wilson's concerning the industrial situation he declared, "I am going to fight any effort to have any minority rule this country. It does not make any difference which minority it is, whether it is capital or labor. No sort of privilege will ever be permitted in this country. It is a partnership of, it is a mockery," in a final challenge to his opponents, the President said: "Let gentlemen beware how they disappoint the world which is looking to America for leadership. Let gentlemen beware how they betray the immortal principles of the United States. If we want a League of Nations we must take this League of Nations, for there is no way on which another is obtainable. All over the world people are looking to us with confidence, our rivals along with the weaker nations. I pray God that the gentlemen who are delaying this thing may presently see it in a different light." The President declared again that Germany was taking new courage from our delay in ratifying the treaty, that her newspapers and public men were again becoming outspoken, and that the Progerman propaganda was rearing its head once more in America he urged his hearers to combat all this, so that as America's soldiers have saved Europe, America's citizens may save the world.

AUNT BETTIE CORNELISON ANSWERS MASTER'S CALL

Mrs. John Settles, of the county, has the sympathy of friends and relatives in the loss of her mother, Mrs. Bettie Hardin Cornelison. She was 75 years old and had been failing in health for sometime, but had been confined to her bed four weeks when she fell into that sweet sleep that none awakens until the Master says "Come." "Aunt Bettie" as she was called, was kind and gentle and loved by all who knew her. She was a devoted member of the Baptist church. She was the second wife of James Cornelison, who died 23 years ago. She was laid by his side in Pilot Knob cemetery last Monday evening after funeral services by Revs. O. P. Jackson and R. L. Ambrose.

Youth Wins Again

The veteran breeders in Durocs who showed in the Junior Sow Pig class at the State Fair, are wondering what happened to them. The first, second and third prizes went to a girl and two boys who were members of the Pig Clubs of the State. These three prizes were taken in a hotly contested ring with 37 gilts showing. An eleven year old boy got the Junior championship in the Hampshire class with a Hampshire gilt.

Standardization Spreads

One breed of purebred chickens for each county, is the aim of the standardization work of the Extension Division of the College of Agriculture. This work has spread rapidly until 85 counties are now developing this plan. Almost a half million eggs from purebred hens were secured for setting in these 85 counties last spring. Three-quarters of a million purebred eggs will probably be sold and distributed in Kentucky during the spring of 1920.

BUGHT NICE CATTLE

Thomas M. Covington, of Union City, delivered to John Park at Richmond, 15 yearlings at 10 cents a pound and 15 nice feeders at 11 1-2 cents a pound.

A hurricane in southern Florida did damage amounting to $2,000,000. The greater part of the loss to property was at Key West and Miami.

Can They Always

Maks That $4,000?

Whether Commonwealth Attorneys can have applied from excess fines above $4,000 at the credit in a given term of office to the deficiencies for a former term is a very important question the Court of Appeals will decide in a short time. An early decision of the question was made possible when the highest court this week advanced and took under consideration the case of John H. Gilliam against R. L. Greene. Auditor Gilliam raised this question by endeavoring to compel Auditor Greene to issue a warrant for his fees for $4,000 during several years of his term as Commonwealth Attorney when the fees fell below $4,000, as he had earned for the state much more than $4,000 for several years. Greene refused to issue the warrant and the suit by Gilliam to compel his followed.

Building Big Dam In Bourbon

The Mason and Hanger Company, which has the contract for building the dam across Stoner Creek, near the mouth of Scott Creek, on Xalapa farm, owned by E. F. Simms, in Bourbon county, began work this week. The dam will be constructed of concrete and will be eight miles above Spears' dam, and six miles below Old Seamounts mill dam now dismantled. The water at the point of construction is low and the work will be pushed.

Long Lines Waited

The corridors of "old State" were crowded last week with young men and women waiting to enroll for work this season. The prospects for a big year were everywhere present as the restless wartime activities of last year were out of the way. The big registration of the first few days of this school year showed that a material increase of the student body was certain at the State University for 1919-20.

Five thousand Odd Fellows of Kentucky and Southern Indiana are expected to attend the Kentucky State Grand Lodge meeting in Louisville Tuesday and Wednesday, October 14 and 15.

Percy Johnston's Recipe

The American Magazine has just printed a life sketch of Percy Johnston, Lebanon, Ky., boy, who rose from bank "rat" in Marion county to the first Vice Presidency of the great Chemical National Bank of New York. And Johnston is still a young man, as men are counted in the business world today. Asked by his interviewer of the magazine as to what pointers he could pass on to others anxious to get ahead, he said:

"No man can afford to stay in a position where the avenue to the top is closed.

"If you are to make success in life you have to take some chances.

"A man may have limitless ambition, but unless he exerts himself to the utmost to qualify himself to attain his ambition, his mere ambition is worthless.

Tom Rhea Unlimbers

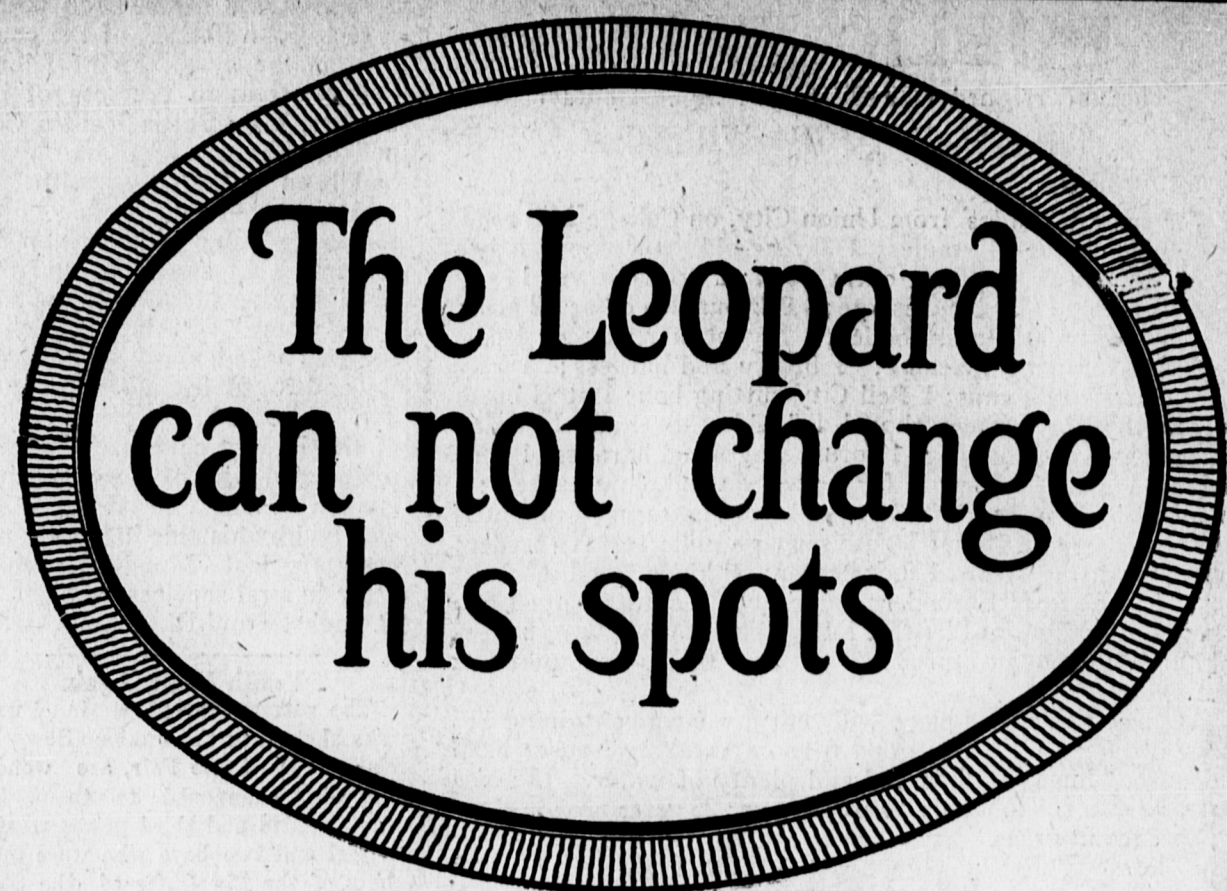

One of the features of the Democratic opening at Hopkinsville was the speech of Tom Rhea of Russellville, chairman of the state campaign committee. Now this one of the Rheas had not been known as a public speaker, but his brother, the former congressman and now Circuit Judge John S. Rhea, is a power on the stump and in days gone by was a democratic wheelhorse at every public speaking. Tom Rhea however, has the bulldog aggressiveness of his older brother, and knows how to handle any situation. He used some heavy artillery on the republican candidates. The Enquirer's report of his speech said:

Thomas Rhea, manager of the Democratic campaign, was introduced as the General Pershing and Marshal Foch of the Democratic Army in Kentucky.

Mr. Rhea denounced the Republicans strenuously, declaring that Morrow was making his fight on Stanley's record while he was running against Governor James Black. He replied to the charge of wastefulness on the part of the Democratic administration by giving figures of the extra amounts spent by Democrats for roads, schools, Confederate pensions, etc. He compared Stanley's pardon record with former Republican Governors, Bradley and Willson. He charged further that the most of those pardoned by Stanley had been Republicans. He said the issue in Kentucky was whether A. F. Hert, Republican leader, is to control Kentucky politics or not, and he referred to Thurston Ballard, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, as "a confessed profiteer," who "admitted having sold flour for $1.10 a barrel less in Louisiana than in Louisville."

A Good Indian

Miss Elizabeth Estes, one of the attractive young ladies of the Waco section, was married in Lancaster Saturday to Mr. Geo. Townsend, of Clayton, Michigan. After a few days stay with friends in Lancaster, they will locate in Michigan where the groom is a prominent business man.

A Unique Wedding.

A very unique wedding took place Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in the office of Hon. W. B. Smith, when Miss Annie Marie Vizner, of St. Elie, Lorie, France, and Mr. Tilford Wagers, of Berea, were married by Rev. O. Olin Green, pastor of the First Baptist church. The wedding was the culmination of a romance which sprang up while Mr. Wagers was with the American army in France. He was taken ill and cared for in the Vizner home. Last week the bride-elect, accompanied by her mother, Mme. Blanche O. Vizner, arrived in Lexington, where the groom to be was waiting for them and the marriage was solemnized here. The bride is a typical French girl of unusual beauty and personal charm. The groom is a student in Berea College and they will make their home in Berea.

ENLARGE PRESENT WORK

Forces in Field Today Are Far From Sufficient To Meet Needs of Situation, Leaders Declare—Europe Included On Program.

Now that the larger liberties enjoyed by peoples everywhere, following the close of the world war, have revealed as never before the need and the opportunity for the spread of the gospel to all the ends of the earth, the Baptists of the South have launched their program for $75,000,000 to be raised in cash and five-year subscriptions between now and December 7th, in the hope of making a worthy beginning toward supplying this world need.

Of the total sum sought in this campaign, the actual drive for the funds

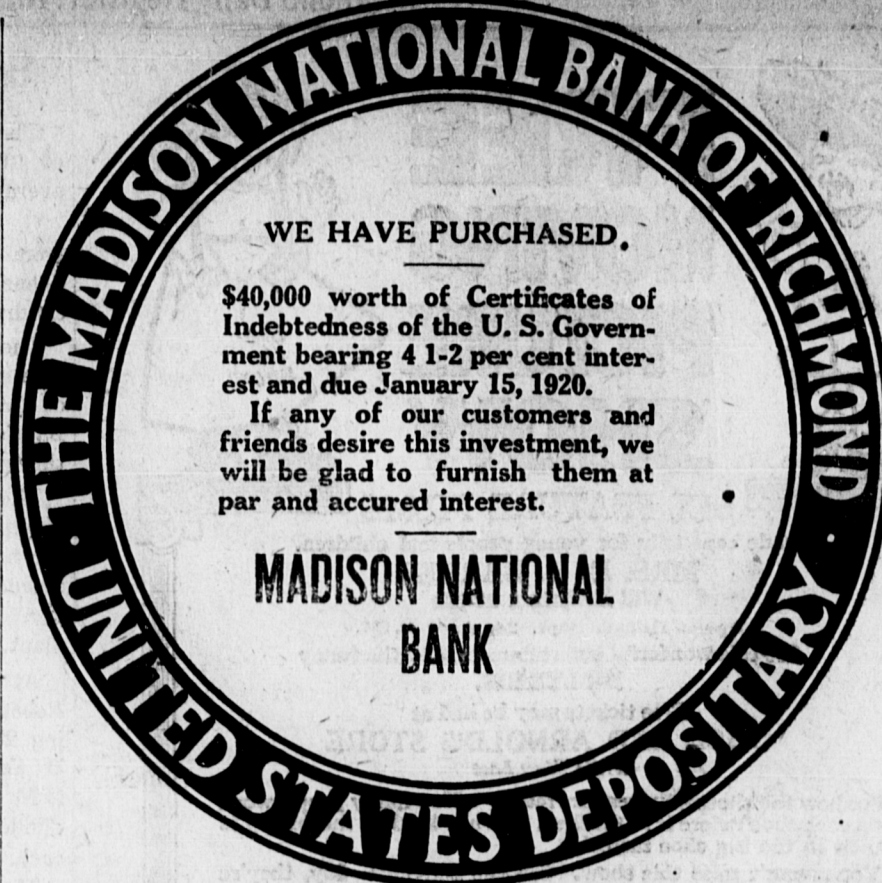

DR. J. F. LOVE,

to be made during Victory Week, November 30-December 7, $43,000,000 will be devoted to missions, and $20,000,000 of this sum will be devoted to enlarging the work on the ten important foreign fields occupied already and to opening up new fields where countless millions of peoples have not yet heard the story of Jesus Christ.

Asia, Africa, Latin America (including Mexico as well as South America), and Europe are the four continents in which the missionaries of Southern Baptists are operating today, but in all of the ten countries of these continents, Southern Baptists have only 316 missionaries, 787 native workers, 192 of whom are ordained, 12 foreign physicians, 6 foreign trained nurses, 21 native physicians and 23 native nurses.

"Our missionaries already on the field have wrought wonderfully for the Master, considering the difficulties they have had to confront," Dr. J. F. Love, secretary of foreign missions declares, "but we at home have not supported them as we ought with helpers of all kinds and with schools, hospitals and other agencies to enable them to do a larger work in every way. The smallness of the work we have done already can be realized when we look at the vast number of people who have not been reached in the foreign fields we are occupying today. China, for instance, has a population four times that of the United States, or one-fourth the population of the entire world, and our force there consists of only 65 men, 62 married women, 49 unmarried women, 54 ordained natives and 420 unordained native helpers. Japan, which has half as many people as the United States, is being served by 9 men, 8 married women, 3 unmarried women, 11 ordained natives and 6 unordained native helpers. In Italy there are a third as many people as there are in the United States, yet we have there only 2 men, 2 married women, 35 ordained natives, and 3 unordained native helpers. Mexico has 15,000,000 people, and we have in that country and on the border a missionary force consisting of 11 men, 11 married women, 3 unmarried women, 24 ordained natives and 15 unordained native helpers. Argentina has a population of 8,000,000 and our missionary force there consists of 7 men, 7 married women, 14 ordained natives, and 7 unordained native helpers. In Africa, we have entered only one state, that of Nigeria, but this state has a population of 20,000,000, and to serve those people we have only 7 men missionaries, 6 married women, 3 unmarried women, 3 ordained natives and 52 unordained native helpers. Brazil has a territory larger than all the United States and a population of 50,000,000. Serving those people we have a force of 54 men, 33 married women, 2 unmarried women, 69 ordained natives, and 52 unordained native helpers. Our work in Chile, where there are 3,000,000 people, is only two years old, but we have 12 churches, and 15 out-stations in which last year there were 122 baptisms. We need at least 200 more missionaries now and from the proceeds of this campaign we hope to employ them and then equip them and those on the field already for doing the largest work for the Master."

Starting a Telephone Talk

When you have called for a number on the telephone and you hear a voice say, "This is So and So, Mr. Such and Such speaking," you know at once whether you have the right number or not.

On the contrary, if the voice says "Hello! Hello!" you are in the dark, and you are obliged to waste time in asking.

When called to the telephone always introduce yourself at once. It saves all preliminary questioning, and avoids confusion.

UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC Home Needs

Bring pleasure and comfort into every home where they are used—Pleasure because of their beauty and efficiency; comfort because of the great amount of time and labor they save. The spirit of war-time economy is shown not only in the saving of money and food, but also in the conservation of time and work. It is the duty of every housewife to aid in local war activities, but many are unable to do so because of the great amount of time required for household cares. Electricity solves this problem by doing the tasks that ordinarily take the best part of a day in a few hours, giving more time and accomplishing the work in a far more efficient manner.

We Carry a Complete Line of UNIVERSAL Electric Home Needs.

PANOLA

The people of this community were given a surprise on the 8th, about 11:30 a. m., by the appearance of an airplane. It made its appearance in the Northeast and flew to the Southwest, along the mountain ranges. Some supposed it interested in oil development, as it was flying on the famous 45 degree line. It seemed to be maneuvering now and then, in its flight as though taking observations.

RED CROSS TO ASK FOR $15,000,000 MORE

The primary object of the Red Cross campaign, for which headquarters have been opened at the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington, is to enroll members for the year 1920, but there will be in addition a general appeal for $15,000,000, in the nation to enable the Red Cross to complete its war obligations at home and abroad.

There will be local appeals, where, necessary, conducted by chapters to obtain whatever money they may need to finance their local programs.

The first task of the Red Cross is of-course to fulfill its obligations to the American soldiers and sailors. The organization plants to concentrate its efforts on peace problems at home, unless America should again be involved in war or confronted by great disasters which create emergencies. The programs are primarily within the field of public health and are arranged for the co-operation with official activities, federal state and local.

Congress has prolonged the responsibility of the Red Cross abroad authorizing the Secretary of War to transfer to the American Red Cross such medical and surgical supplies and supplementary and dietary food stuffs now in Europe as are not needed by the army abroad or at home to be used by the organization "to relieve and supply the pressing needs of the countries involved in the late war." To these supplies will be added such materials as the Red Cross has in Europe. To meet these obligations, to minister this foreign relief, the Red Cross must raise at this time $15,000,000.

Mr. John R. Downing, of Lexington, is the campaign manager, Mr. S. W. Calder, of Lexington, is assistant campaign manager and Miss Lida Hafford, of Louisville, is executive secretary.

WINFREY GETS 'SHINER IN RAID IN RUSSELL

Deputy U. S. Marshal, Charley Winfrey, of Somerset, who is well known here where he is frequently in attendance at federal court, had a gun fight with a moonshiner in Russell county the other day, and as a result, the 'shiner is in a hospital at Somerset with four bullet holes in him. Winfrey is a fearless and conscientious officer, and his many friends are glad that he was not injured. The Somerset Journal said of the raid in which it all happened:

Fred Austin, of Russell county, is in the Somerset Sanitarium with four gun shot wounds in his back and one in his stomach as a result of a raid on a still in Russell county. United States Marshal Chas. Winfrey, with the sheriff of Russell county, started out last Saturday night to raid a still in Russell county and as they approached the place where they had been informed the still was located they met four men coming from that direction. They ordered the men to throw up their hands, and it is said, all but Austin obeyed the officers. Austin walked up to the officers with one hand in his hip pocket and a fight ensued with Winfrey. During the scrap Austin was shot four times. The other men escaped. Austin claims he was shot four times by the sheriff of Russell county and once by Winfrey. At the hospital it is learned that Austin is in a very bad condition and is not expected to live. He refuses to give the names of the parties with him.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better. In fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists NO-123
